

Name: _____

Date: _____

World Cup Schedule

To answer these questions you will need to be able to see a copy of the World Cup Schedule shown below.

The image shows the match schedule for the 2010 FIFA World Cup in South Africa. It is a grid with columns for dates from June 11 to July 12, and rows for venues: Johannesburg (Soccer City), Johannesburg (FNB Stadium), Nelson Mandela Bay Stadium, eZinkweni Stadium, Makhosonke Stadium, Cape Town (Green Point Stadium), Durban (Moses Mabhida Stadium), Polokwane (Peter Dinko Stadium), and Mbombela (Moses Mabhida Stadium). The schedule is divided into Group Matches (1-48), Round of 16 (49-64), Quarter Finals (65-68), Semi Finals (69-72), and All Stars and Final (73-74). There are three 'Rest Days' indicated by vertical bars. A legend at the bottom left shows the color coding for Groups A through H. At the bottom right, there are logos for sponsors like Adidas, Coca-Cola, Emirates, and others.

1. What day do USA play their first game? _____
2. How many games are played on 14th June? _____
3. How many games will be played in Polokwane? _____
4. What do the initials SVK stand for? _____
5. How many games will Honduras play in the group matches? _____
6. How many games do you need to play to win the World Cup? _____
7. How many rest days are there? _____
8. Why are the rest days towards the end of the world cup? _____

9. How many matches will be played in the World Cup? _____
10. Pick two teams that could meet in match 50 on Saturday 26th June?

11. Why do you think the Soccer City stadium has been chosen for the final? _____
11. Can you make up your own questions about this chart?

[Type text]